“American folk music washes gently against Americana”

...is how Carol Markstrom's music is described by Country Music People Magazine. Carol is pleased to announce the release of her 5th CD, Seekers, that includes award-winning songs. Across the U.S. to the far north of Alaska and to Europe, audiences have been entertained by Carol's clear, emotion-filled vocals and songs that transport across places, times, and people. Her music taps into Folk, Americana, and Country. Carol's ballads and love songs range from whimsical to bittersweet, and the beauty of places inspires some of her songwriting. Indigenous peoples and their cultures also influence Carol's songwriting resulting in her being recognized by the Native American Music Association and Spirit Wind Records. Her songs have been included in films, and she has won music awards from Europe to the U.S. Her songs are played by DJs worldwide.

FEEDBACK: Fans remark on Carol's clear, emotion-filled vocals. She reminds them of artists such as Emmylou Harris, Suzy Bogguss, Dolores O'Riordan, Sheryl Crow, and Natalie Merchant. Whether originals or covers, Carol's song selections go over well.

PERFORMANCES: Carol accompanies herself on acoustic guitar, sometimes with other musicians, and performs a broad repertoire of songs for a variety of venues, such as folk and other music festivals, house concerts, restaurants, clubs, and wineries, and libraries and museums. Carol has appeared on the Earnest Tubb Midnight Jamboree in Nashville!

Carol is a Member of Folk Alliance International and the Native American Music Assn, and serves on the Board of the International Western Music Assn.
